Let's Get Started

Hi! I'm Strawberry Shortcake!

I live in a berry special place called Strawberryland. I have a little sister, a cat, a puppy, and lots of berry best friends. Do you want to learn how to draw me and all my friends? It's easy and lots of fun!

First, you'll need some things to get started, like paper, pencils, and an eraser. Then you'll need something to color your drawings. You can use crayons, markers, or colored pencils.

Just follow the simple steps on each page and in no time you'll be the berry best artist yet!

The Berry Basics

It's easy to draw something when you know how to draw different shapes. Everything around us is made up of simple shapes, just like the things you see here.

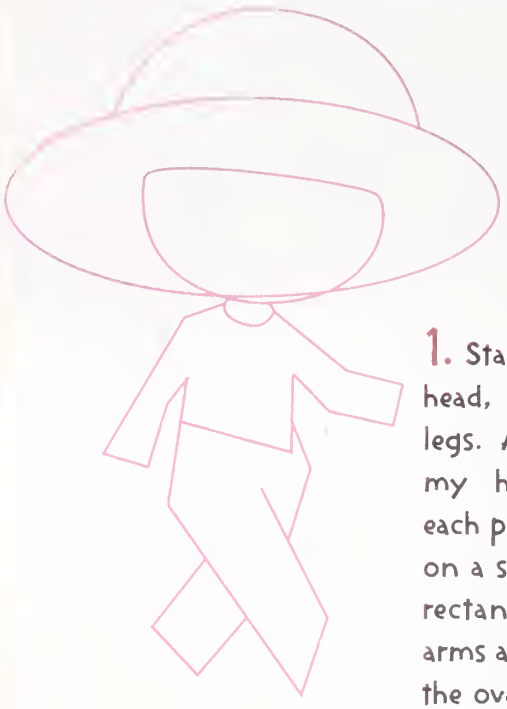
Are you ready to draw? Turn the page and let's get started!

Strawberry Shortcake

(That's Me!)

I love sweet strawberries! Berry picking is one of my favorite things to do. You can draw me picking a bushel of strawberries in six easy steps. Here's how:



1. Start by drawing my head, body, arms, and legs. And don't forget my hat! Remember, each part of me is based on a shape. Look at the rectangle shapes my arms and legs make and the oval shapes my face and hat make.

2. Next, add my hands and feet. Then draw my basket and the bow on my hat.

3. Now draw my hair, face, and fingers. Draw my shoes, a sweater around my waist, and the strawberry in my bow.

Practice drawing a ribbon for Strawberry's hat. Draw two squares for the bow, two ovals for the loops, and two rectangles for the ends.

4. Add more strawberries! Fill up my basket with strawberries and draw lots of strawberries on my hat. Add details to my eyes, pants, and shoes.

5. Color in your drawing with lots of pinks and berry reds—my favorite colors!

6. Add pink and green stripes to my shirt and bow. Then add shades and highlights to your picture as shown.

And you're done! See? Wasn't that easy?
Let's draw some more!

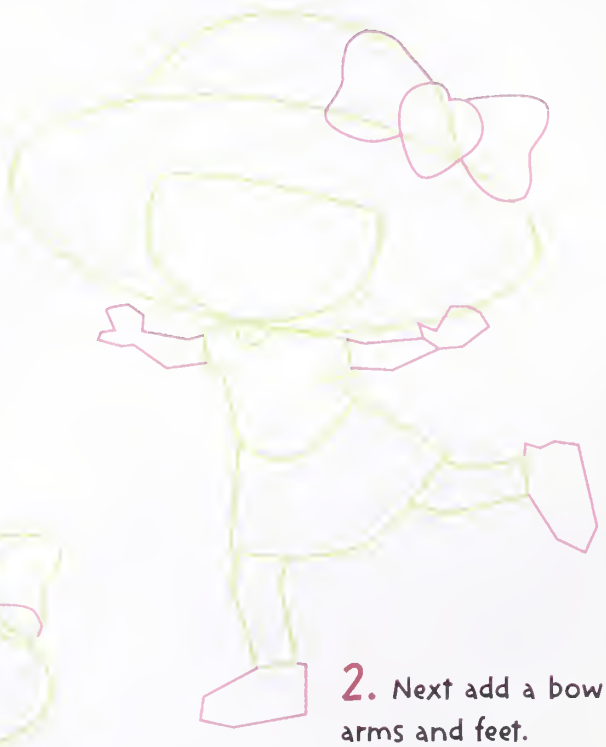
Strawberry's eyes are oval shapes with three small lines above them for her eyelashes.

Roller-Berry Fun!

Whee! Roller-skating is so much fun! I love to whiz and roll all over Strawberryland.

Now you can draw me in action. It's easy. Let's do it together, one step at a time.

1. First draw a half circle for my head, an oval for my hat brim, and another half circle for the top of my hat. Then draw my shirt, skirt, and legs.



2. Next add a bow and my arms and feet.

3. Draw my hair, face, and fingers. Add a shirt around my waist, socks, and the strawberry in my bow. Fill in the details on my clothes.

4. Now add my bangs and finish the details to my eyes and mouth. Draw wheels on my skates and the ribbon around my hat. And don't forget the strawberries on my hat!

5. Draw pom-poms on my skates, then color in your drawing.

6. Finish the details on my hat and shirt. Add shades and highlights as shown.

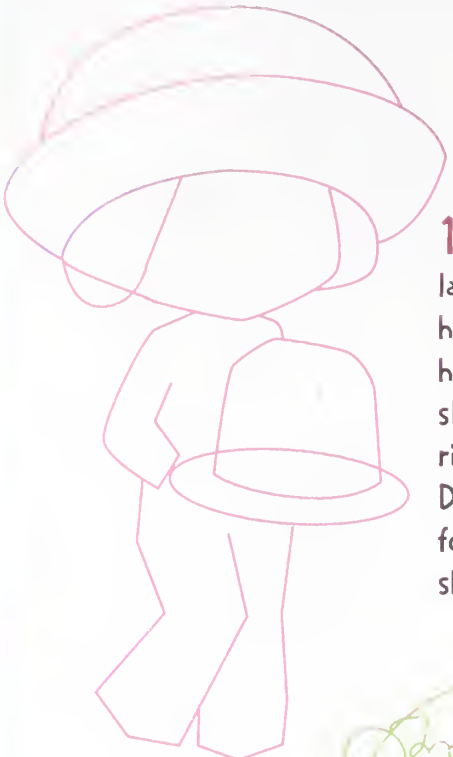
Hooray! You're doing great!

Practice drawing Strawberry's mouth. First draw a line for her smile, then draw a half circle beneath it.

Angel Cake

Angel Cake is one of my berry best friends. And she is the berry best cake decorator in town! Can you guess which of her cakes is my favorite? That's right—Strawberry shortcake, of course!

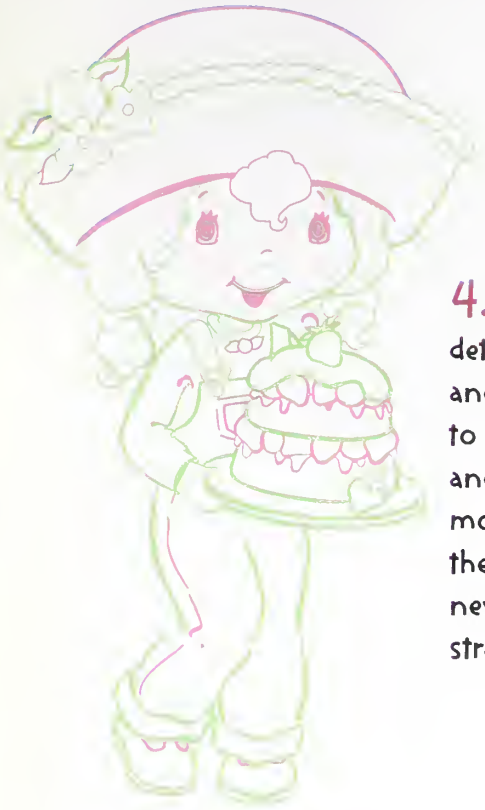
Draw Angel Cake and her delectable masterpiece:



1. Start by drawing two large oval shapes for her head and hat. Add her hair. Then draw rectangle shapes for her body, right arm, and legs. Draw a rectangle shape for the cake and an oval shape for the cake plate.

2. Next add trim and flowers along the brim of her hat. Draw her pigtails, the straps and cuffs of her overalls, and her feet.

3. Draw Angel Cake's face. Then draw the strawberries and frosting on her cake.



4. Now fill in the details of her face and hair. Add details to her overalls, shirt, and shoes. And draw more strawberries on the cake—you can never have too many strawberries!

5. Color in Angel Cake. Purple and blue are her favorite colors!

6. Finish your drawing by adding purple stripes to her shirt, and highlights and shadows as shown.

Practice drawing Angel Cake's hat. Draw a half circle shape on top of a rectangle.

Ginger Snap

I love to visit my friend Ginger Snap in Cookie Corners. Ginger Snap bakes the yummiest cookies around! And lucky for me, she loves to share all of her tasty treats. Mmm!

Draw Ginger Snap and her cookie creations:

1. Start by drawing two rectangles for her hat and a half circle for her head. Draw in her body, arms, and legs.

2. Add her shoes, her shirt, and a plate full of cookies. Yum!

3. Now draw her face, hands, and pigtails. Add details like the collar and cuffs on her jacket and the gingerbread on her hat brim.

4. Next fill in the details on Ginger Snap's face. Then add details to her clothing, shoes, and hat. Draw decorations on the cookies.

5. Draw zigzags on Ginger Snap's pant cuffs, then color in your drawing. Ginger Snap loves pink and purple!

6. Draw more decorations on the yummy cookies. Finish your drawing by adding highlights and shadows as shown.

Practice drawing a gingerbread man for Ginger Snap's hat. Draw a circle for its head and a rectangle shape for its body. Then add arms, legs, buttons, and a face.

Orange Blossom

I help my friend Orange Blossom tend her orchard in Orange Blossom Acres. Orange Blossom is berry cool because she loves to help things grow. She makes the world a berry beautiful place to be.

Draw Orange Blossom and her basketful of juicy oranges:

1. Start by drawing one large circle for her head and two small ovals for her pigtails. Draw her body, arms, and legs.

2. Then draw a half circle shape for her face, and add her hands and feet. Draw a flower on her shirt and a basket in her left hand.

3. Now add her eyes, nose, mouth, hands, and hair.

4. Next fill in the details on her face, shirt, pants, and basket.

5. Color in your drawing. Orange Blossom's favorite color is orange, of course!

6. Finish your drawing by adding highlights and shadows as shown.

Practice drawing a daisy for Orange Blossom's shirt. Draw a circle with half circles all around it.

Huckleberry Pie

I always have the berry best adventures with Huckleberry Pie. We skateboard and play lookout in his tree fort. Each day is filled with fun!

Draw Huckleberry and his supercool skateboard:

1. Start by drawing half circle shapes for his head and hat, then fill in his hair. Draw rectangle shapes for his arms, legs, and body.

2. Next draw his hands and feet. Add a line behind his head for the brim of his hat. Draw a rectangle shape for the skateboard and circles for the wheels.

3. Draw in his eyes, nose, mouth, and fingers. Draw h shirt, vest, pants, and shoes.

4. Now fill in the details to his face and clothing. Add a tuft of hair coming out of his baseball cap.

5. Color in Huckleberry Pie. His skateboard is red with yellow wheels.

6. Finish your drawing with highlights and shadows.

Apple Dumplin'

Apple Dumplin' is the berry best little sister anyone could have. She's as sweet as a strawberry pie, and just as cute, too!

Draw lovable little Apple Dumplin':

1. Start by drawing a half circle for her hat and a large oval for the brim. Then draw a half circle shape for her face, and rectangle and square shapes for her arms, left leg, and dress.

2. Draw her hands, right leg, and feet. Draw a circle in her right hand for an apple and an apple blossom on her hat.

3. Now draw her eyes, nose, mouth, and hair. Add in the hem and sleeves of her dress, her shoelaces, and a bow underneath her chin. Fill in the details on her hat.

4. Apple Dumplin' loves apples, so make sure you add lots of apples to her dress and hat.

5. Color in your drawing. Apple Dumplin's dress and hat are yellow with red apples, and her shoes and shirt are a bright red.

6. Add green-and-white plaid trim to her hat and dress. Finish your drawing with highlights and shadows as shown.

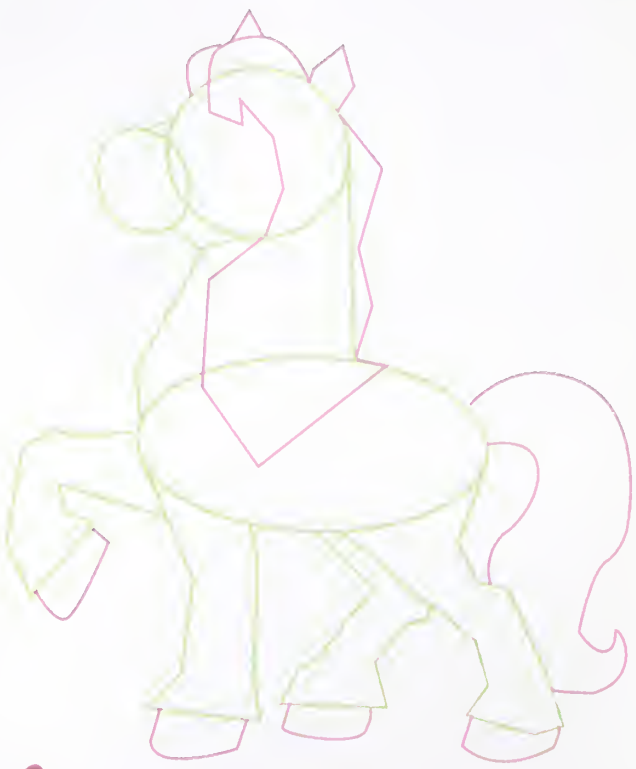
Practice drawing an apple. An apple is similar to a strawberry, but instead of a triangle shape, it is more circular.

Honey Pie Pony

Honey Pie Pony is a berry good friend. She's caring and kind and is always around to lend a helping hoof.

Draw galloping Honey Pie Pony:

1. Draw a circle for Honey's head and an oval for her snout. Then draw a large oval for her body and rectangle and trapezoid shapes for her legs and feet. Draw lines connecting her head and body.



2. Next draw her mane, ears, tail, and hooves.

3. Now add her nose, mouth, and eyes. Fill in her shaggy coat and add flowers on her mane and tail.

4. Add spots to her coat and fill in the details to her face, mane, and tail.

5. Now color her in with a beautiful honey-colored coat.

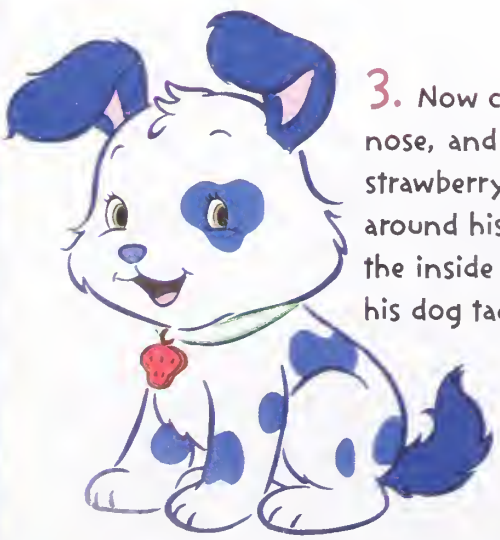
6. Shade and highlight your final picture.

My Puppy, Pupcake

Pupcake is my lovable, huggable puppy. He's adorably spunky and full of pep. Sometimes it's hard keeping up with him!

1. Draw Pupcake's head, ears, legs, and tail.

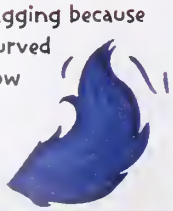
2. Next add his eyes, nose, mouth, and paws. Draw his collar and strawberry dog tag.



3. Now color in his ears, tail, nose, and spots blue. He has a strawberry-shaped blue circle around his left eye, too. Color the inside of his ears pink and his dog tag red.

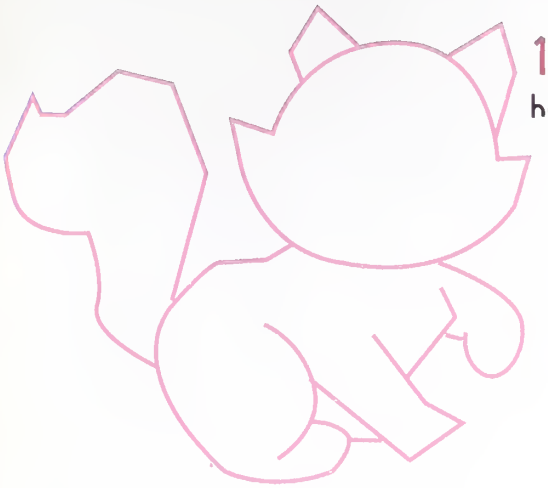
4. Finish your drawing by coloring his green-and-white-striped collar and adding shade and highlights as shown.

Pupcake's tail is always wagging because he's always happy! Add curved lines around his tail to show movement.



Custard the Cat

Custard is my cuddly kitty who loves me a lot. I can tell by the way she purrs when I give her a berry big hug.



1. Start by drawing a circle for Custard's head. Add her ears, tail, body, and legs.

2. Next add her stripes, nose, eyes, mouth, and paws. Draw a bow around her neck.

3. Color Custard light pink, then color in her stripes dark pink. Color her eyes and bow green. Draw a strawberry on her bow.

4. Finish by coloring in her bow with green-and-white stripes. Add highlights and shadows as shown.

Custard's ears are shaped like triangles.

My Berry Bungalow

This is my house in Strawberryland. I live here with Apple Dumplin', Pupcake, and Custard. It's our home-sweet-berry-home!

1. Start by drawing a strawberry . . . just like the ones you've already drawn, but much bigger. Add an oval shape at the bottom for my doorstep.

2. Next add windows, plant boxes, and a front door.

3. Draw in the windowpanes, doorknob, and flowers. Add scalloped borders atop the windows and door.

4. Now add flowers to the plant boxes and a heart on the welcome mat. Fill in the finishing details, like lines on the door, curtains in the windows, and seeds on the strawberry house.

5. Color the house a beautiful strawberry red! The leaf rooftop is green, the front door and welcome mat are blue, and my curtains are pink.

6. Finish your drawing by adding highlights and shadows as shown.

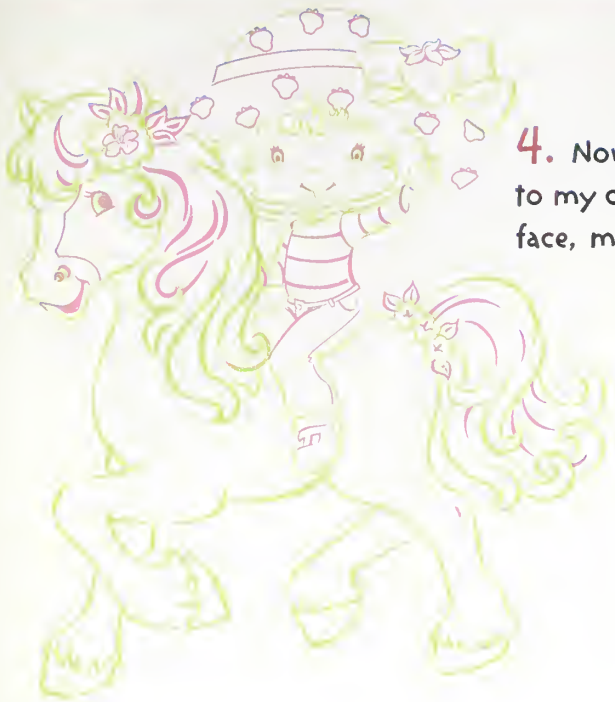
Honey Pie Pony and Me!

Now that you know how to draw Honey Pie and me, you can draw us galloping together through the golden hills of Honey Pony Pastures. Here's how:

1. Start by drawing Honey Pie like you did on page 21. Then draw me riding on top of her. Start with my head, body, and left leg.

2. Next add my arms and feet and the bow in my hat. Add Honey Pie's mane, ears, tail, and hooves.

3. Draw my eyes, nose, mouth, hair, and hands. Add the strawberry to my bow. Fill in the details of Honey Pie's shaggy mane and coat. Draw her face and the flowers on her mane and tail.



4. Now draw strawberries on my hat and add details to my clothes and shirt. Finish the details on Honey's face, mane, and tail.

5. Color us in just like you did on pages 7 and 21.

6. Finish off your drawing by adding highlights and shadows as shown.

My Berry Balloon

Now that you know how to draw me and my friends, you can draw us on some berry fun adventures. Draw us flying high above Strawberryland in a berry balloon:

1. Start by drawing a large strawberry shape for the balloon. Then draw a rectangle below it for the basket. Draw three small berries on the basket and three smaller berries on the balloon, then add lines connecting them. Add Orange Blossom, Ginger Snap, and me in the basket.

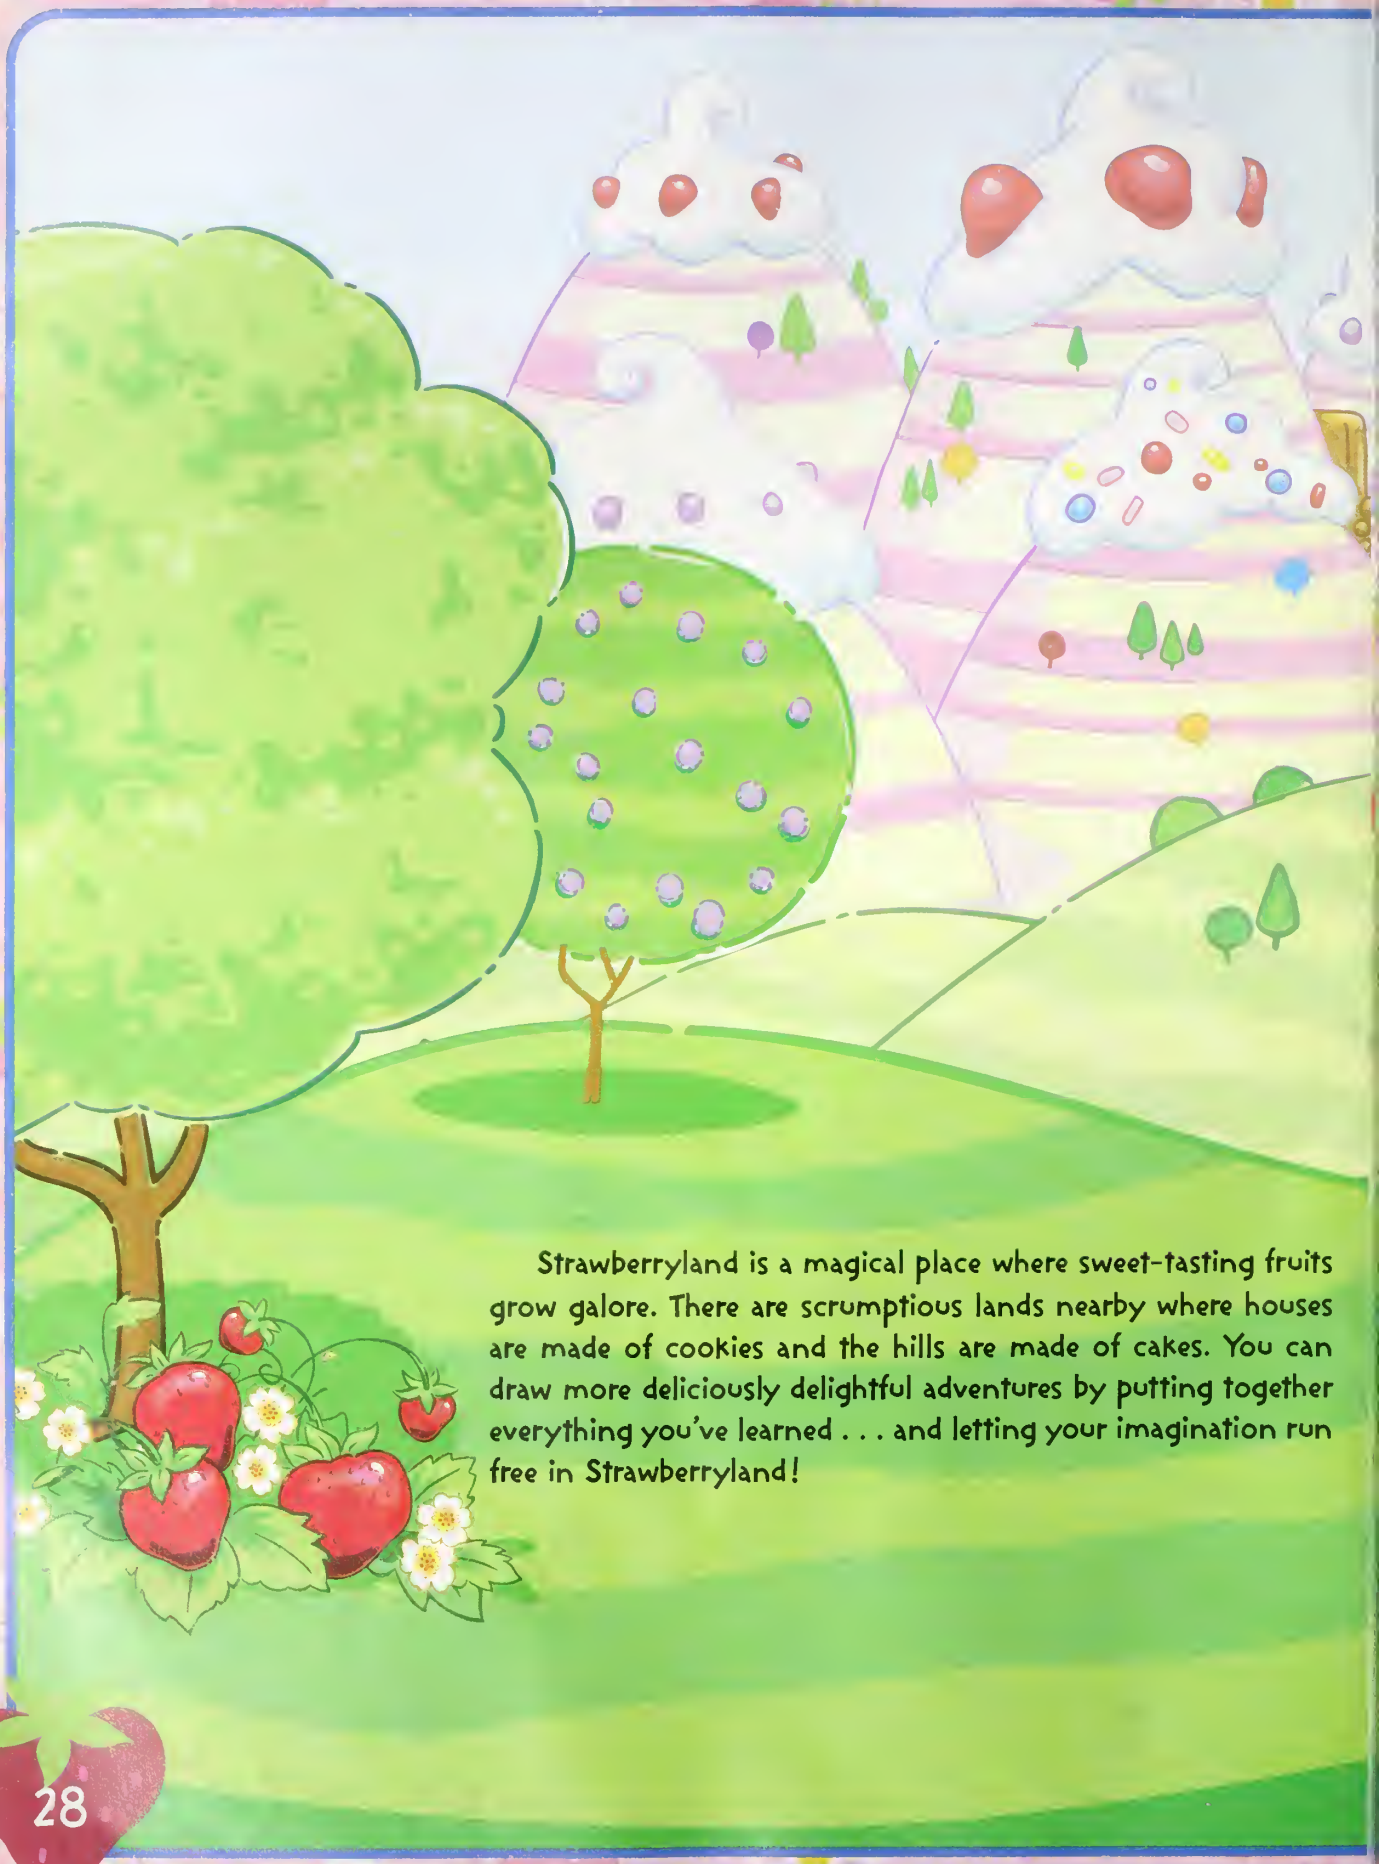
2. Add a bow around each strawberry on the balloon, then connect them with a line as shown. Add a base to the basket.

3. Next fill in the details on me and my friends, like our faces, hair, fingers, and clothes. Draw a bluebird on Ginger Snap's finger.

4. Now add a ribbon around the balloon and braided ropes to the basket, balloon, and connecting cords. Add strawberries to the basket and on my hat.

5. Color the balloon and the strawberries on the basket a berry bright red. Color Ginger Snap, Orange Blossom, and me just like you did earlier.

6. Finish your drawing by adding highlights, shadows and details as shown.



Strawberryland is a magical place where sweet-tasting fruits grow galore. There are scrumptious lands nearby where houses are made of cookies and the hills are made of cakes. You can draw more deliciously delightful adventures by putting together everything you've learned . . . and letting your imagination run free in Strawberryland!

Just Imagine!

You Did Great!

I hope you had fun drawing me and all my friends in Strawberryland. Remember, the more you draw, the better you get, so . . . keep on drawing!
